

Conference on the Theory and Pedagogy of Urban Law

 8 novembre 2019 ore 9:00 - 9 novembre 2019 ore 16:00

 Sala Consiglio Viale Pola 12, Roma

First Day

Framing session: introducing the workshop substance and goals, agreeing on the content and methodology

Session 1

Urban law in comparison with related legal disciplines, in relation to other legal disciplines and lessons to learn from the urban dimensions of cognates disciplines

Session 2

Urban law as a mission-oriented discipline addressing the most daunting challenges cities are facing in the XXI century

The workshop concludes with the Luiss Debate "Urban Law, Innovation and Adequate Housing"
 (<https://www.luiss.it/evento/2019/11/08/luiss-debates-urban-law-innovation-and-adequate-housing>)
 (Luiss Campus, Via Parenzo)

Second Day (Luiss Campus, Viale Pola)

Session 3 - Urban law: principles, legal categories and tools. Is urban law public or private law?

Session 4 - Teaching urban law: co-designing a common syllabus and defining a canon

QTEM

(<http://www.qtem.org/>)