

Meeting with Nicholas Clegg Facebook's Vice President for Global Affairs and Communications

 21 gennaio 2020 ore 13:00

 Aula Magna Mario Arcelli Viale Pola 12, Roma

Event jointly organized with Facebook.

“There is an ideological fight for the soul of the Internet going on at the moment,” the former UK deputy Prime Minister said. “There are certainly two Internets, the Chinese Internet and the non-Chinese Internet, but there are many countries now, and particularly in more authoritarian parts of the world, who are actively seeking to emulate the Chinese wall that has been built.”
