

Competition law and sustainable development: Overcoming the dilemma?

Online conference organized by the Luiss School of Law with King's College London and University College London, in cooperation with Associazione Italiana Giuristi Europei and Assonime.

13 November 2020, 9:30 am

Opening Addresses

Andrea Prencipe
Rector, Luiss Guido Carli University

Paola Severino
President of the Scientific Council, Luiss School of Law

Roberto Rustichelli
President, Autorità Garante per la Concorrenza e il Mercato

Keynote speech

Mario Monti
President, Bocconi University and former EU Commissioner for Competition

10:00 am FIRST PANEL

Rethinking consumer welfare: towards a more hipster “antitrust approach”?

Moderator

Enzo Moavero Milanesi
Luiss School of Law Director

Speaker

Giovanni Pitruzzella
EU Court of Justice

Discussants

Antonio Bavasso
University College London and Allen and Overy LLP

Cristina Caffarra
Charles River Associates

Christopher Townley
King's College London

Break

11:15 am SECOND PANEL
Sustainability challenges and Competition policies

Moderator

Mario Siragusa
Associazione Italiana Giuristi Europei
and Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton

Speaker

Renato Nazzini
King's College London and LMS Legal LLP

Discussants

Ginevra Bruzzone
Assonime

Mariateresa Maggiolino
Bocconi University

Heike Schweitzer
Humboldt University

12:15 pm THIRD PANEL

Antitrust exception for Sustainability?

Moderator

Gabriella Muscolo
King's College London and Autorità Garante
della Concorrenza e del Mercato

Speaker

Ioannis Lianos
University College London and Hellenic Competition Commission

Discussants

Assimakis Komninos
White & Case

Giorgio Monti
Tilburg LEC

Gustavo Olivieri
Luiss School of Law

Registration