VENUE: ONLINE VIA ZOOM ORGANISED BY: OIPRC AUDIENCE: ANYONE

The OIPRC is delighted to present an expert panel discussion on copyright exceptions, with Professor Tanya Aplin (KCL), Professor Lionel Bently (University of Cambridge), Dr Emily Hudson (KCL), and Professor Robert Burrell (University of Oxford) being chaired by Professor Jonathan Griffiths (Queen Mary).

The panel will inter alia debate the potential breadth of the quotation exception to copyright infringement, as well as the extent to which broad exceptions can provide specific guidance in real world contexts. The panel will introduce and debate key ideas in two major new monographs on copyright exceptions: Drafting Copyright Exceptions: From the Law in Books to the Law in Action and Global Mandatory Fair Use: The Nature and Scope of the Right to Quote Copyright Works. For those interested in background reading, this resource is helpful: Whatever Became of Global Mandatory Fair Use?

To participate in this discussion, please complete the form as soon as possible. This discussion will be capped so please register as soon as possible. The zoom link will be emailed to you the day before the discussion.
